'semiosis

June 4th, 2020 - semiosis is the performance element involving signs although a human can municate many things unintentionally individuals usually speak or write to elicit some kind of response yet there is little real explanation of how semiosis produces its effects which is odd given that the word sign is in everyday use and most people would understand what it means'

'semiosis by sue burke open letters review

April 13th, 2020 - a character driven science fiction novel of first contact semiosis might be a title you would rather associate with a scholarly tome about language than with a work of fiction but it does give a clear indication of what sue burke's debut novel is about munication and because burke's book is science fiction the story centers around the munication with sentient non humans'
